THE PERFORMING RIGHT SOCIETY LTD.

An Association of Composers, Authors and Publishers of Music, Copyright House, 29/33 Berners Street, London W.1.

Registered Office in India: 36, Second Line Beach
Madras 1

Tariff for Aircraft

The above Society Proposes to collect, until further notice, fees, charges, or Royalties for the grant of licences for the performance in Aircraft of Copyright music in the Society's repertoire by Radio or Recordings. Licences issued thereunder cover the licensee Company or Corporation during the whole of the flights made by the Aircraft, including when they are over the territory or on the airports of overseas countries. The Society cannot and does not warrant that no claims will be made against aircraft in respect of music not in the Society's repertoire, e.g. the music of the U.S.S.R., Bulgaria or China.

The Society's annual charge for a licence under this tariff is calculated as follows:—

(A) Home Aircraft operating only between airports in India—

For each aircraft travelling not more than 250,000 miles per annum:

The number of passenger seats multiplied by the average occupancy multiplied by Rs. 4.50 nP.

For each aircraft travelling more than 250,000 miles per annum the fee will be increased proportionately. Fees are payable annually in advance.

(Example of assessment—Aircraft seating 60 passengers, Average occupancy 50 per cent, travelling 400,000 miles during the year:

$$60 \times 50\% \times \frac{400,000}{250,000} \times \text{Rs. 4.50 nP} = \text{Rs. 216—Annual fee}.$$

(B) International Aircraft operating under All India International or other Indian Corporations or Companies—

For each aircraft travelling not more than 750,000 miles per annum:

The number of passenger seats multiplied by the average occupancy multiplied by Rs. 15.

For each Aircraft travelling more than 750,000 miles per annum, the fee will be increased proportionately.

(Example of Assessment—Aircraft Seating 50 passengers, Average Occupancy 60 per cent, travelling 800,000 miles during the year:

$$50 \times 60\% \times \frac{800,000}{750,000} \times \text{Rs. 15} = \text{Rs. 480—Annual fee}.$$

At the commencement of each licence year the certified particulars for the previous licence year shall be the basis on which the fee for the current year shall be calculated.
